

Welcome to Catford Community Church

whether you're a regular or a visitor, you're very welcome

I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full. - John 10:10

I Am

Welcome to our Sunday morning service at Catford Community Church, which today is led by Ian Butcher with Joel Butcher leading worship. Then Stuart Checkley will be preaching on John 1:1-18. After the service, grab a tea or coffee and join us for our monthly prayer meeting.

Abundant Life

Last Sunday we kicked off 2019 with the verse: Jesus came that they may have life, and have it abundantly. You can listen to Ian's message online at tinyurl.com/y8ljzvze. We talked and prayed about what this might look like in 2019 in our personal, church and community lives. Ian suggested that we record our prayers and hopes for the year in envelopes which we'll come back to in December to see what God has done. There are some more envelopes if you'd still like to complete one.

Dad, could you tell me what we can do to help the world. What do you mean in a Word? Dad why are you looking at me like that!?! Hey, cut it out ...

New Life

Congratulations to Ian & Emma who told us last Sunday that they are have a baby! Emma wrote on Facebook: A whole new kind of adventure for 2019... Mini Hiley due in July!

Do pray for Ian & Emma and the baby, and for them and Tom & Phillippa as they have moved into a new house last week.

Church Forum

We're planning a forum on Sunday 10 February to share news about life at CCC more than we can do on regular Sunday mornings. We'll gather again after the service, and we'll have updates on our finances and plans through 2019. This is for everyone who's part of CCC, so please get there if you can!

LEWISHAM STREET, SCHOOL & PRAYER PASTORS RE-COMMISSIONING SERVICE 2019

Lewisham Street Pastors have been patrolling the streets on Friday or Saturday nights for over 10 years, listening, caring and helping those people found out and about during the early hours. More recently they have trained School Pastors who patrol a local secondary school at lunchtimes, building relationship with both pupils and staff. There is a faithful team of prayer pastors who cover them every time they are out on the streets.

A special Recommissioning Service will be held in St John the Baptist Church, Bromley Road on 10 February at 4pm. It will be an opportunity to tell stories of what's been happening, be grateful to our Street, School and Prayer Pastors, and recruit new people to this exciting and essential work. We're excited to have Rev Les Isaac OBE, founder of Street Pastors, speaking at this event.

At CCC we have a strong connection to the work of Street Pastors - with Carol Losinski volunteering as a Street Pastor regularly. The event is being held in Dave and Cynthia Harding's church.

Phoebe

Several people say that they're interested in reading this work of imaginative theology, and get together to chat about it afterwards.

Let's aim to do that in the week after half term. If you'd like to be part of this, let Ian know if you can make 25th, 26th or 28th February and we'll choose the most popular. At moment it's all women who have said they are interested - it is a book for men too!!

Some people have said that the full hardback price of £14.99 is a bit much. If I do a bulk order with a local Christian bookshop I can get them for £10.99. If you'd like me to get you one for that price, please let me know over the weekend. Or the Kindle price is even lower.

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning.

Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

There came a man who was sent from God; his name was John. He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all men might believe. He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light. The true light that gives light to every man was coming into the world.

He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God— children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John testifies concerning him. He cries out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.'" From the fullness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God, but God the One and Only, who is at the Father's side, has made him known.
