How much do you see CCC as: an event – a service provider – a business – a family?

To what extent are you extended family to people in CCC? What practical things can you do to invest more deeply into the relationships in CCC?

“The more conscious we are of our own adoption story, the more likely we are to be patient and hospitable and forbearing with our local church” – in what ways can you experience this link between God’s adoption of you and your involvement in God’s family?

WORSHIP

When you stretch out your hands,
I will hide my eyes from you;
even though you make many prayers,
I will not listen;
your hands are full of blood.

Wash yourselves; make yourselves
clean;
remove the evil of your doings
from before my eyes;
cease to do evil,
learn to do good;
seek justice,
rescue the oppressed,
defend the orphan,
plead for the widow.

Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself
unstained by the world.

James 1:27

What do you find yourself critiquing most in our worship gatherings at CCC?

How does Isaiah 1 challenge the way that you view worship?

What are God's priorities for worship? What may need to change in your life? What difference could this make to church?

Romans 8:14-39

We are loved, chosen, called, placed – and adopted – in God's family, and nothing can separate us from his love

நாங்கள் கடவுளின் குடும்பத்தில் தத்தெடுக்கப்படுகிறோம். அவருடைய அன்பிலிருந்து எதுவும் நம்மைப் பிரிக்க முடியாது

Somos adotados na família de Deus. Nada pode nos separar de seu amor
